CAVOTEC DATA GOVERNANCE STATEMENT AND REMOTE SERVICE AUTHORIZATION

Cavotec Data Governance Statement (“DGS”) describes Cavotec’s practices for collecting, sharing and using data and information relating to customers and customer’s machines, products, Devices or other Assets and their associated worksites. It also describes the process for performing remote diagnostics and for making available remote software and firmware updates and upgrades, such as configuration, patches, bug fixes, new or enhanced features, etc., for Assets and Devices.

Capitalized terms used in this Authorization but not defined herein, have the meanings given in the DGS Document. The legal entity identified below (Company), represents and warrants that the execution, delivery, and performance of this Authorization has been duly authorized and signed by a person who meets statutory or other binding approval to sign on behalf of its business organization as named in this Authorization.

Company acknowledges and agrees:

- To data being transmitted to Cavotec via devices installed on Company equipment or by other means as outlined and described in the DGS and grants to Cavotec the right to collect, use, and share such data and information (including any such data and information previously collected by Cavotec), only for intended purposes, and consistent with the DGS Document,
- To participate in remote services (including, remote diagnostics and remote updates and upgrades) and authorizes Cavotec to remotely access, program, and install updates and upgrades for Company’s Assets and Devices in accordance with the DGS Document (the remote services will not affect any core functionality of the equipment).

AGREED DECLINE

The rights granted in this authorization survive the termination or expiration of the Company’s subscriptions to any Equipment supply agreement, Service Agreements or Digital offerings. Except as set out in a written agreement between Company and Cavotec expressly referencing the Data Governance Statement, this authorization supersedes and replaces any other authorizations regarding the subject matter hereof.
